

The Telephone Consumer Protection Act Docket - 02-278 is one of the best things to happen to NJ residents. I have had an almost 100% drop in telemarketing calls, and I think fellow New Jerseyans would agree that it should stay in effect. Telemarketing calls are annoying, and disrupt daily life enough that it affects the quality of life. Again, the current law should stay in effect for the good of all residents of the state.